- Relock fees will be assumed to be paid by the broker through netting of broker origination charges, unless otherwise requested
- All relock requests must be emailed to lockdesk@reunionmortgage.com

Current Market Relock

- Expired, denied and cancelled locks are eligible for current market pricing 60 days after the lock expiration or date of cancel or date of denial

Broker Compensation Policy

Reunion has two broker compensation plans to comply with the Federal Reserve Board's Loan Originator Compensation Rule, effective April 1, 2011. The Broker of Record must select a plan(s) and sign a Mortgage Broker Compensation Agreement in order to view pricing in Reunion Direct.

Borrower-Paid Plan

Brokers will disclose their compensation upfront to the borrower, and will be paid directly by the borrower at closing.

Lender-Paid Plan

The Broker of Record must pre-select one of several compensation tiers from .125 to 3.500, in increments of .125 (e.g., 1.000, 1.125, 1.250, 1.375). Once the Broker pre-selects a compensation tier, that tier applies to all loans regardless of product type and loan amount.

Under the Lender-Paid Plan, the Broker can also pre-select a minimum dollar amount, a maximum dollar amount, and a flat fee that can be charged on top of the compensation tier. The Broker can change tiers either every two weeks with a minimum of two loans funded, or every 30 days with no minimum loans funded.

Regardless of the compensation tier that a Broker pre-selects under Reunion's Lender-Paid Plan, originators can still fund loans any time under a Borrower-Paid Plan, as long as the compensation is disclosed upfront and the Broker pre-selected both plans in the Agreement.

Refer to Reunion's Broker Compensation Policy and Mortgage Broker Compensation Agreement for complete information.
